RICH GOLD MINE A SECRET .- A dispatch from Seattle, Wash., says: A secret expedition sailed on Monday to what are said to be fabulous new gold fields. The company is headed by George Rennick, an Idaho mine operator. He and his partner, George Finster, are supposed to have been the only persons who have worked in the new camp. They came out about sixty days ago and brought $30,000 in gold dust, the proceeds of about four months' work. Rennick had been tour prospecting in Alaska with varying success for there years. The diggings, so far as can be learned, are between Sitka and the mouth of the Copper river, and about 250 miles from the

The expedition headed by Rennick consists of twenty men, all in the employ of himself and partner. The boat was the Augusta. Besides the men she had forty dogs, twenty sledges and about fifty tons of previsions.

FOR THE OFFICES .- Now that the election is over, the contests for the offices to be filled by the General Assembly will attract more attention than they have yet done. There is a great army of candidates in the field and others may enter yet. Nearly all of the State officers have opposition already, and some of the few who have escaped thus far may wake up any fine morning to find another Richard in the field. There is going to be a race between Messrs. Ryan and Saunders for the Speakersuip of the House, but the two contests of over-shadowing interest are those over the offices of Superin-tendent of Public Instruction and Su-parintendent of the Parisonian perintendent of the Penitentiary. A hard fight is being made on Mr. Massey by some of those who are fighting for a change in our school histories, and the sheriffs will put forth every effort to compass the defeat of Major Lynn. But both will be found very hard men to
